

Part-Time Employment Agreement

THIS AGREEMENT is made effective as of March 30, 2026.

BETWEEN:

Elias Range Inc., a corporation incorporated under the laws of British Columbia, with its registered office located at - Scott Cres, Squamish, BC V8B 0G8 (hereinafter referred to as the "Company")

AND:

Mairi-Anne MacLeod, residing at _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Employee")

(The Company and the Employee are collectively referred to as the "Parties")

BACKGROUND

A. The Company is engaged in the business of providing healthcare housing, workforce housing, and related property management services.

B. The Company wishes to engage the Employee on a contractual, part-time basis in the position of Logistics Coordinator, and the Employee has agreed to such engagement under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

IN CONSIDERATION of the mutual covenants and promises in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Position & Duties

1.1 Position:

The Company agrees to employ the Employee in the position of Logistics Coordinator.

1.2 Duties:

The Employee agrees to perform the duties and responsibilities as outlined in the Roles & Responsibilities document, attached hereto as Schedule A and forming an integral part of this Agreement. The Employee shall report to the Company's Partners or their designated representative.

1.3 Performance:

The Employee agrees to perform their duties faithfully, diligently, and to the best of their abilities, and to act in the best interests of the Company at all times.

2. Terms of Employment

2.1 Start Date:

The employment shall commence on March 30, 2026.

2.2 Employment Type:

The Employee's engagement is on a contractual, part-time basis, compensated on a per-hour basis through the Company's payroll. There are no set weekly hours, and the Employee will be engaged as needed to meet the operational requirements of the Company.

2.3 Hours of Work:

There are no guaranteed minimum or maximum hours per week. The specific hours of work will be assigned by the Company as required and agreed upon between the Parties. The Employee is not entitled to a minimum number of hours in any given week.

2.4 Probationary Period:

The first ninety (90) days of employment shall constitute a probationary period. During this period, the Company will evaluate the Employee's suitability for the role, including job performance, reliability, and alignment with the Company's values and operational needs. During the probationary period, either Party may terminate this Agreement with one (1) week's written notice or pay in lieu thereof. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the Employee will be confirmed in the position and the standard termination provisions outlined in Section 5 of this Agreement shall apply. The Company will conduct a formal review with the Employee at or near the conclusion of the probationary period to discuss performance, expectations, and any adjustments to the role.

3. Compensation & Benefits

3.1 Remuneration: The Company shall pay the Employee a wage of $30.00 per hour, or $240.00 per day when deployed on deployment assignments, payable on a bi-weekly basis for hours and days worked, subject to all statutory deductions and withholdings as required by law.

3.2 Vacation:

As this is a contractual, per-hour engagement with no set weekly hours, the Employee is not entitled to paid vacation time or vacation pay beyond what is required under the minimum standards of the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia.

3.3 Statutory Holidays:

The Employee will be entitled to statutory holiday pay in accordance with the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia.

3.4 Expenses:

The Company will reimburse the Employee for all reasonable and pre-approved expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, upon submission of receipts and in accordance with the Company's expense policy.

4. Confidentiality & Intellectual Property

4.1 Confidential Information:

The Employee acknowledges that in the course of their engagement, they will have access to confidential information belonging to the Company, including but not limited to client lists, contracts, financial data, business strategies, and operational processes. The Employee agrees not to disclose or use any such confidential information for any purpose other than the performance of their duties, both during and after their engagement with the Company.

4.2 Intellectual Property:

The Employee agrees that any and all intellectual property, including but not limited to inventions, discoveries, designs, processes, and documents, created or developed by the Employee in the course of their engagement shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

5. Termination of Employment

5.1 Termination by the Company:

The Company may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing the Employee with notice or pay in lieu of notice in accordance with the minimum requirements of the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia. The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time for just cause, without notice or pay in lieu of notice.

5.2 Termination by the Employee:

The Employee may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing the Company with two (2) weeks' written notice.

6. General Provisions

6.1 Governing Law:

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of British Columbia and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

6.2 Entire Agreement:

This Agreement, including Schedule A, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, and negotiations, whether written or oral.

6.3 Severability:

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable.

6.4 Independent Legal Advice:

The Employee acknowledges that they have had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice prior to signing this Agreement and that they have either done so or have waived their right to do so.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.
